Psalm 119:153-160

Look on my affliction and deliver me, for I do not forget Your law.

Plead my cause and redeem me; give me life according to Your promise!

Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek Your statutes.

Great is Your mercy, O LORD; give me life according to Your rules.

Many are my persecutors and my adversaries, but I do not swerve from Your testimonies.

I look at the faithless with disgust, because they do not keep Your commands.

Consider how I love Your precepts! Give me life according to Your steadfast love.

The sum of Your word is truth, and every one of Your righteous rules endures forever.

Announcements

Reminder: Congregational meeting next Sunday (16th) for the election of ruling elders and deacons, after the morning service. Craig Simon and Chris Conger (for ruling elder) are approved by the Session and Lucas Kearns and Jim Mistak as well for deacon (as you desire).

This Wednesday our 6:30 pm prayer and Bible study continues in the OT with Elijah (and Elisha?), I Kings 17-18.

Come, Let Us Sing Unto the Lord

Come, let us sing unto the Lord new songs of praise with sweet accord;
for wonders great by Him are done, His hand and arm have vic'try won.

The great salvation of our God is seen through all the earth abroad;
Before the heathen's wondering sight He has revealed His truth and right.

He called to mind His truth and grace in promise made to Israel's race;
and unto earth's remotest bound glad tidings of salvation sound.

All lands, to God lift up your voice; sing praise to Him , with shouts rejoice;
With voice of joy and loud acclaim let all unite and praise His name.

Let earth be glad, let billows roar and all that dwell from shore to shore;
let floods clap hands with one accord, let hills rejoice before the Lord.

For lo, He comes; at His command all nations shall in judgement stand;
The Lord shall judge, dispensing right.

I Am Making All Things New

Then I saw the heavens open for the former things were past. And I heard my Savior singing: "I have come for you at last! I will wipe away death's sorrow; you will no more cry or grieve. To the thirsty I give healing, from the spring of life come drink!"

Chorus: "For behold, I am making all things new! Write this down; every word is true.
Tell the whole world what I came to do: I am making all things new!"

Then I saw God's holy city, New Jerusalem descend. And a voice announced with splendor, I will dwell with you My friends! I will be your God forever; you will never leave my side. You were always My beloved, now at last, you'll be My Bride! Chorus

We will no more fear the darkness, and the night will be like day; for the Lamb in all His beauty, life a torch, will light our way. And the gates of that great city never close to those who come: every nation brings its glory to our new creation home! Chorus

Jesus Calls Us

Jesus calls us: o'er the tumult of our life's wild restless sea, day by day His sweet voice soundeth, saying,
"Christian, follow me."

As of old, apostles heard it by the Galilean lake, turned from home and toil and kindred, leaving all for His dear sake.

Jesus calls us from the worship of the vain world's golden store, from each idol that would keep us, saying,
"Christian, love me more."

In our joys and in our sorrows, days of toil and hours of ease, still He calls, in cares and pleasures, "Christian, love Me more than these"

Jesus calls us: by Thy mercies, Savior, may we hear Thy call, give our hearts to Thine obedience, serve and love Thee best of all.
